Piers Laverty CV

Born Sydney 1955

Attended National Art School 1973/74

Multi-disciplinary, Laverty has earned great respect as an arborist, his love of trees has led him to his appreciation and knowledge of timbers. His wood working skills are exemplary and much admired. One look inside his house in the northern suburbs of Sydney give acclaim to his huge skills in this area. And not only in wood, but he also is a ceramist.

But in this current exhibition we see his skill with camera. As he says 'I love taking photographs. Trying to capture the disappearing moments; standing back and jumping in when the light and movement coalesce – and then being surprised by the poetry of a camera....'
